Please initial your understanding and compliance:

I/We understand the host child(ren) are to return to their country of origin at the end of the social/educational program. We are thankful for this opportunity to help these host child(ren) grow, learn, practice English, visit America and to participate within a family giving them a sense of belonging and, above all, HOPE for their future. We are prepared to give the host child(ren) unconditional love.

_____(Initials) _____(Initials)

I/We understand the importance for all involved for the host child(ren) to return to their homeland, as scheduled, at the end of the program. We are aware that keeping host child(ren) beyond the designated host visitation dates is against both laws of the government of the United States of America and government of the host child(ren)'s home country.

_____(Initials) _____(Initials)

I/We do realize that failure to return the host child(ren) on the required departure date, or any attempt to delay this departure constitutes criminal punishment by law by either government. PROJECT 143 staff and volunteer personnel have explained the purpose of the orphan host program and we, as the participating host family, will assure the host child(ren) leave the United States on the date of expiration of their authorized stay.

PROJECT 143

bringing hope to orphans through hosting

I/We will abide by this rule and will make every effort to welcome the host child(ren) into our family during his/her stay. We are honored to be a part of this host program and look forward to meeting our host child.

____(Initials) ____ (Initials)

I/We understand that although the host child(ren) might have suffered abuse in the past, they are not in any present imminent danger at the orphanage. Therefore, I/we will not file an imminent danger or child abuse claim to keep the host child(ren) in the United States past their assigned departure date.

____(Initials) ____ (Initials)

I/We understand that as a host parent, we are NOT the host child(ren)'s legal guardian.

____(Initials) ____ (Initials)

I/We understand that in the event my/our hosted child(ren) are not returned at the appropriate time, I/we are responsible for all travel costs, legal fees, and court costs, etc. involved in returning the host child(ren) to his or her home country. A deposit of $2500 will be due to Project 143 immediately.
