

Hosting Agreement-Financial

Typical host program donations are applied to the following expenses:

- Document preparation (per participant)
- Apostille documents
- Translation and certification of documents
- Child's Travel and Related Expenses
- In-country transportation to/from airport
- Passport and US Visa
- Medical Insurance
- Portion of Chaperone's insurance, expenses and airfare

NO REFUNDS POLICY:

In accordance with IRS regulations, Project 143 enforces a strict "No Refunds" policy for donations made to the orphan host program.

P143's No Refund Policy applies to the following but may not be limited to:

- $250 Deposit is always NONREFUNDABLE regardless of circumstances.
- Removal of a host child from a host family's home for any reason.
- Cancellations by a host family prior to host child's arrival.
- Host family failed background check.
- A Home Safety Report resulting in a "Non-Recommendation".

TRANSACTION ADJUSTMENTS POLICY:

- Project 143 recognizes circumstances wherein a transaction adjustment is necessary.
- A portion of donations may be available for transferring to the next host season.
- The donation amount available for transfer for a host family will vary by date.
- Situations applicable for transaction adjustments are determined at Project 143's discretion.
- Donations are utilized throughout the pre host season, from the initial host family deposit to the arrival of the children; therefore, donations already utilized cannot be transferred to another host season.
- Non transferrable funds may include:
 - Airline ticket
 - Passport
 - Visa
 - Train ticket
 - Medical insurance
- EXAMPLE: A situation that may warrant a transaction adjustment:
 - Removal of a child from the host program by a foreign government. An alternate host child will be recommended.

FUNDRAISING DONATION POLICY:

- Monies raised on behalf of a family's fundraising activities are non-refundable.
 - Donations made through a family's fundraising resources:
 - may be transferred to the next consecutive host program/host season only.
 - may be transferred and utilized toward hosting another child.

CANCELLATION POLICY:

- A cancelled commitment to host a child by a family, regardless of reason, negatively impacts a child's chances of having a host family. By holding a child off the photo listing for more than 2 weeks through a financial commitment hinders the child's chances of being matched.
- Funds already donated by a host family, who then breaks their hosting commitment, will remain with the host child or P143 may choose to select another child in need for whom a grant is warranted. Funds will not be refunded.
- Once a family cancels, their nonrefundable donations will be allocated, in the form of a grant, to reduce the child's host donation fees in an effort to quickly identifying a new host family for the host child.
- Donation funds utilized for the child grant are drawn from the cancelling host family's initial host deposit and/or any other donation payments already made.
- Project 143 may cancel a host family's hosting event with the program due to a host parent's neglect in responsibilities. Such warranted actions include:
 - Extending host donation payments beyond the host schedule due dates.
 - Failure to submit required host documents within 30 days of paying a host child's deposit.
